

Outreach to agencies and First Nations
Review of opportunities for participation and collaboration, e.g., questionnaire and research collaborator

Share initial considerations for a First Nations-led secretariat
Continued engagement with research collaborators

Questionnaire data analysis begins
Update on First Nations-led secretariat models for consideration
Continued engagement with research collaborators

Continued questionnaire data analysis
Continued engagement with research collaborators
Initial review of the Measuring to Thrive framework and tools

Interim results of capital needs assessment shared
Refinements to the Measuring to Thrive framework and data collection approach shared

Revised funding approach components with refinements and lessons from research collaborators and questionnaires shared

Modelling revised funding approach and incorporating lessons from questionnaires and research collaborators into organizational design

Project end (tentative)

Prepare outreach materials and research tools for project launch
Briefings and engagement with stakeholders

Confirm research collaborators
Schedule virtual questionnaire workshops or a one-on-one session

Share comparative analysis of CFS legislation in provinces and territories
FNCFS questionnaire participation to close this month
Continued engagement with research collaborators

Continued questionnaire data analysis
Continued engagement with research collaborators

Interim questionnaire findings shared back

Interim findings from research collaborations shared back

Revised funding approach is tested and system costs are estimated through the updated approach

IFSD timelines are illustrative and subjective to public health guidelines (COVID-19), and the availability of research collaborators, and data from various sources.

FNCFS Phase 3 – Illustrative timeline